

Dallas Ray Johnson

December 23, 1985 ~ May 11, 2024

Dallas Ray Johnson, age 38, passed away peacefully on May 11, 2024, in Provo, Utah, with his wife next to him. Born December 23, 1985, in Payson Utah to Kevin and Nan Johnson.

Dallas grew up in Salem, Utah, where he excelled in sports and had fine-tuned the art of smiling with his dimple and laugh. Dallas learned valuable lessons from his friends' parents, teachers, and leaders. He pursued his passion for welding, following in his father's footsteps, and had a successful career in the field. An outdoorsman at heart, Dallas found solace in nature and enjoyed camping and fishing trips in the beautiful Utah landscapes. Dallas had so much love for his family and friends, he would do what he could for any of them.

In 2015, Dallas found love with his wife, Patricia, and they married on February 12, 2016. He shared the last 9 years of his life with her. They made memories together that will last a lifetime. Dallas not only touched our family with his kind heart, strength, and humility he spread it to anyone he was around. His contagious smile with that dimple of his lite up any room. We will all hold that memory of the kind of love he had in his heart for his wife.

He is survived by his wife Patricia Sievers Johnson, stepchildren Kelsey (Bryson) Horton, Dakota (Jaydee) Sainsbury, Kaylie, Kambree, and Kaden Sainsbury, grandchildren (Riley, Sebastian, Taylin, Teagyn, and Carston), parents Kevin and Nan Johnson, siblings Ashley (Bret) Diamond and Seth Johnson, nieces, and nephew McKenzie (Tristan) Danner, Klea, and Ryder Diamond.

Dallas was preceded in death by his grandparents Fred (Faye) Johnson, Basil (Geraldine) Talbot and father-in-law Reynaldo Sievers Jr.
