

Danielle Banry

June 27, 1973 ~ January 5, 2024

Danielle's profound gratitude for life and those in her circle was undeniable. Born on June 27th, 1973, in Medford, Oregon, to Carolyn and Brian Hartgraves, she peacefully reunited with her Heavenly Father on January 5th, 2024. Survived by her devoted husband, Jared, sons Jared Jr. and Gaven, beloved nieces and nephews, brothers Dean and Greg, and parents Carolyn and Brian,

Danielle leaves an enduring impact on all who had the privilege of knowing her.
Many were fortunate to count Danielle as their friend. Throughout her earthly journey, she surpassed the roles of a mother and daughter, embracing the positions of a teacher and friend—earning affection from everyone she encountered. Whether you were a close acquaintance or a stranger at the grocery store, she ensured each interaction left an indelible impression.

Danielle earned her degree in "Marriage and Family Studies" from BYUI, dedicating over 10 years to positively influencing children at Central Point Elementary. Later, she relocated to Utah, continuing her impactful work with children with disabilities.

Join us in celebrating the life of this remarkable woman at The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints building on 3456 Bellinger Ln, Medford, Oregon, at 11 am on March 2nd, 2024
