Tracy Dee Kauffmann

May 31, 1958 ~ May 21, 2015

When we think of Tracy, we think of fun. We think of laughter and simple pleasures. Mom made everything special, down to the last detail. She loved, and insisted on tradition. Special dishes, special decorations, certain meals for certain holidays. Even when she had struggles these things were important to her; and important to us as well.

Tracy loved you good, bad or ugly. Your \good\ was good enough for her. She attached no strings, no conditions, just love. She cheered you on and always stood in your corner. Mom was loyal to her parents, Ron and Charlene Dee, adored her siblings and their families, was enamored with her grandkids and devoted to her children.

Mom loved the ocean, Jimmy Buffett and the peaceful, crystal waters of Bear Lake. Any vacation was perfect with her family by her side.

We know that Omi's heart continues through the eyes and future of her grandkids. She will continue to cheer them on and stand in their corner.

Thank you Tracy for taking all of us through your adventure and journey. Lucky us.
