So grateful to have had Betty as a neighbor! She’s been a positive influence on our family. She was a quiet force for goodness in our East Millcreek area. Betty will be remembered with fondness❤■

- Julie Bagley

I only have fond memories of Betty. When my grandmother, Nedra, suffered a stroke and was forced into a care facility, Betty could frequently be found just sitting with her keeping her company since Nedra couldn't communicate. A true example of love and selflessness. My love and condolences to those she leaves behind.

I'm sort for your loss. Betty was my son's Head Start Teacher on State street. She also recommended me to work for Head Start through Granite School . Which I did. 21 years working with Special Education also with Salt Lake School District. I have pictures of her in her classroom for Halloween on State Street. A beautiful woman. Thank you Barbara Gallegos

I had the honor of knowing Betty from her time as a volunteer at Huntsman Cancer Institute. She was endlessly kind and seemed to teach me important things each time we talked. One day at work, I complained about daylight savings time and she spoke of how time in England during the war was adjusted two hours in order to mitigate the effects of the relentless bombings. I vividly remember having the opportunity to visit Betty at her home. I brought my young son with me and she blessed us with a tour of her magnificent garden. Fifteen years later, that memory seems like a happy dream. What a peaceful place and, in it, an angelic soul that touched my life forever. Thank you, Betty.

I worked with Betty during her many years of volunteer work at Huntsman Cancer Institute. Her dedication and work ethic was truly inspirational. She had a passion to help eradicate cancer and ease the suffering of others in any small way she could contribute. She entered data into a pedigree drawing program for us, to help us visualize each family's unique risk of cancer. At 86 years young, I had to ask her to complete CITI training, so she could continue her work on our studies. She took extensive notes and discussed what she had learned in each module with me. She was truly a lifelong learner - something we should all strive to be. When I told her the training had to be repeated every three years, she joked that this "might" be her last time completing it. In 2020, the COVID pandemic kept her away from us. I called her once to check up, and she talked about her family and her garden - her true loves! Betty made an impact here at Huntsman Cancer Institute that will be felt for years. She never wanted awards or accolades, but she deserved them for sure! Sending my love and condolences to her family. I can only imagine what fantastic people must be in her pedigree!

apologies for not attending your viewing Betty was always a constant in my life. to have Betty and her family as neighbors was a gift from heaven. To learn Christianity from her every day activities and examples was a gift. To get to know her daughters who literally carried our newly arrived family on their shoulders was a gift Betty was a spirit melodius, she found books in running brooks, sermons in stone and good in everything. Thank you Betty for the example and the memories
