June Brooks Walker

June 27, 1920 ~ August 25, 2013

June Brooks Walker passed away of natural causes August 25, 2013 in Salt Lake City, Utah. Born June 27, 1920, she was the oldest child of John Wilford and Margaret Brown Brooks. She was a descendant of many immigrants from Britain that came to the Salt Lake Valley. She graduated from South High in 1937 and studied music performance at the University of Utah. She was married in the Salt Lake Temple to Keith M. Walker who preceded her in death in 2007. During World War II they made their home in San Francisco where dad served in the United States Navy. Later they returned to Utah where they created a home full of love, reared and nurtured five children, and served their church and extended family as well. Mother conducted a piano studio in her home teaching many children over the years. Her eternal marriage, her home, her children, and her faith in the restored gospel of Jesus Christ were the keystones of her life. Her life was pure in love and devotion. May you dwell in peace mother, until we meet again at the Savior's feet.

She is survived by daughters Cherrill (Charity) Welker (Sandy, UT), Joy Robbins (Mesa, AZ), and Shauna Armstrong (Park City, UT) and sons Brooks K. Walker (Eden, UT), and Warren V. Walker (Riverton, UT). She is survived by her sons and daughters-in-law H. Delbert Welker, Jim Robbins, Bradley (Brock) Armstrong, Karen Walker, and Sherry Walker. She is also survived by 19 grandchildren and 19 great grandchildren.

The family would especially like to thank the staff at Hillside Rehabilitation Center for their extraordinary care the last few weeks. A viewing will held Saturday, August 31, 2013 from 10:30 to 11:45 a.m., at the LDS Church located at 1565 South Foothill Drive. The funeral will follow in the chapel at 12:00. Interment at Wasatch Lawn Memorial Park located at 3401 So. Highland Drive.
