

Francine Elizabeth Wright

September 21, 1979 ~ February 18, 2024

Francine Elizabeth Wright, born September 21, 1979, peacefully passed away on February 18, 2024, after a courageous battle with cancer and other health challenges. She was the perfect example of a warrior facing her battles head on with a firm determination and fearless composure. Throughout her struggles, Francine faced adversity with grace and resilience, inspiring all who knew her and those who followed her journey.

Francine is the devoted wife of Adam Wright, the loving mother of Aspen, Bentley, Colter, and Dahlia, whom she adores and treasures, and the cherished daughter of Pierre and Marilyn Baigue.

Adam and Francine were married on October 20, 2001, and shared a love that transcended time and circumstance. Their bond is one of unwavering support, laughter, and mutual respect. Together, they weathered life's storms with grace, their love serving as a beacon of hope and strength for their family and friends.

Despite her own trials, Francine's heart overflowed with empathy for others, always offering comfort and support to those in need. Her presence illuminated the lives of those around her, and her love knew no bounds.

Beyond her capacity for empathy, Francine possessed a rare gift for making others feel loved. Her capacity for forgiveness and understanding was boundless, leaving a permanent mark on the hearts of all who cross her path. She had a passion for art and photography, expressing herself in ways that created connections with others and provided healing and comfort for herself and those who were the recipients of her talents.

The memory of Francine's light, love, and unwavering strength will forever remain in the hearts of those who are fortunate enough to know her. She leaves behind a legacy of resilience, compassion, and a profound appreciation for the beauty of life.

"Take love, multiply it by infinity, and take it to the depths of forever, and you still have only a glimpse of how we feel about you."

Francine is survived by her husband Adam Wright, children Aspen, Bentley, Colter and Dahlia Wright, parents Pierre and Marilyn Baigue, and brothers Alexis, Chris and Jean Baigue.
