Dearest Cyndi and Dennis, we are so sorry for your loss. Your mother touched so many lives with her goodness. She raised noble children. She made the world a better place. Love you dear friends.

- Walt and Ann Layton

Dan and I would like to express our sorrow and share our condolences in the loss of such a beautiful, graceful, and gifted lady.

I'm so sorry to miss celebrating Bevs life as I was in Alaska and returned too late. I Adore this woman. She radiated enthusiasm, creativity, hope and charity. She was my anchor during our sojourn together during the Crescent Stake musical, Journey By Faith. And indeed, it was that. When others didn't show up, or Gave up, she was there, thinking thru options, adjusting to rehearsal schedules, musically adjusting scores, being amazing. She even came to rehearsals and played with a broken shoulder!! What? Playing with her left arm better than I could with both. She embodied the musical's theme, "like our ancestors, we can do hard things." She had a great laugh, radiance, talent and heart. I'll miss her and love her so much. Margo Watson
