Helen Tahtaras Ady

January 4, 1925 ~ February 28, 2020

Helen Tahtaras Ady 95 passed away on February 28, 2020. Helen was a beautiful woman and loved all things bright and beautiful. She was a loving wife, daughter, aunt and friend. Helen was born in 1925 to George and Evangelia Tahtaras. She married James Ady in 1962 and is preceded in death by her husband, her parents and siblings. Helen loved her home of many years and the memories she held dear to her heart. She had a wonderful and fulfilling life. She always loved to be with family and friends and was so thankful for the love and support they gave to her. A special thank you to Hospice care givers, Laura, Miriam and Maria. We also express our deep gratitude to the care givers at Visiting Angels. Helen's graveside service was held on Tuesday, March 3rd, 2020. A celebration of her life will be held early this coming summer.
