Dr. Blaine Hawkes Wilcox

February 16, 1931 ~ February 20, 2022

To Jennifer and family, My deepest sorry for your loss. Having your dad in your life for so many years was truly a blessing. Rest assured he is watching over all the friends and family he left behind and is extending his blessings and love for everyone to hold deeply in their hearts. May he rest in peace. Sabina

Lessons quietly taught to His children and observed by us : Intelligence , humor , lessons about character, integrity and love of your fellow man through action were quietly taught. Blessed and grateful. Prayers to the Family.
