She was Born August 28, 1937 in Le Grande, Oregon to Rex Bowthorpe and Lois Cline Baxter. After meeting Larry Lee Hanney at a Church activity they then dated and were married on September 4, 1958 in the Salt Lake Temple. She was a devoted and life-long member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. She held many callings in the Church but one of her favorite calling was playing the piano in primary.

She was an avid reader, sometimes reading more than one book a day and even reading one book several times. She also loved sewing, quilting, cross-stitching, crocheting, knitting, and many other crafts. She always put in an effort to make a quilt for every grandchild and one for every couple when they got married. She also enjoyed playing the piano and the organ.

Jeneanne had an outgoing personality and loved to sit and chit chat for hours with friends and family or anyone else who happened to walk by. Her home was always welcoming and became a gathering place for all the neighborhood kids or anyone who needed a place to stay. She was also a voracious reader and collected and gave away books by the scores throughout her life. As much as anything, she was proud of being a mom, a grandma, a sister, and a daughter.
