What a wonderful man! I enjoyed every interaction I had with Brad -- talking about law, refugees, church, God, the gospel, life, temple recommend interviews, his family . . . he was always kind, interesting and interested, thoughtful, curious, and clearly a devoted disciple of Jesus Christ. I am grateful for him and his family, especially Val, and pray the Comforter abide with each of you.

Val and Family: I learned from Jeff Edwards yesterday about Brad's passing when I asked him how things were going in the ward. Obviously not as well as they did with Brad's presence. I got to know Brad fairly well when I was the Stake Executive Secretary, and the new Stake Presidency was called. Brad was a great example to me of what a true disciple of Christ is like or should be like. I hope I can follow his great example. He was always very kind and patient with me and I appreciated that a great deal. I was greatly saddened when I heard of Brad's passing. Reading Brad's obituary reminded me of what a great person he is and all he did for not only his family but those that he came in contact with. I am sorry for your loss.

- Randy Philpot

My deepest condolences to Val, Ryan, Wells and the entire family. What a great legacy he has left, evidenced by an amazing family.

Brad was a wonderful disciple of Christ. I loved being with him in Stake Meetings as we talked about and worked with the youth. He was so kind and thoughtful. He had a rich sense of humor we all enjoyed. Some of my favorite memories of him involved Girls Camp and Pioneer Trek where he was always looking for some way to serve others. Sometimes that was serving a meal or washing dishes other times it was noticing someone who needed a friend. Val, I loved watching the two of you together. The love you shared was so evident in the way he talked to you and about you. I am so sorry for the loss your family is experiencing.

Out dear Valorie and family, What a shock it was to hear of the demise of our dear friend Brad!! Your husband and father is a remarkably unique and capable person- a man of unusually high capacity and intimate love for his fellow mortals. That was demonstrated in his service to us as our bishop as we resided in the far away countries of the former Soviet Union.. We love him, and we love you, We mourn with you his untimely passing. We know that you will renew your family relationships in a loving Father's own due time and through His love for you.

- Robert F. (Bob) and Joy Orton

Dear Val and Parker Family, we are so grateful for the time we served together in the Stake Sunday School and for Brad's friendship and wise counsel and inspired blessing as he set apart Colleen as a full-time missionary. We are comforted with an assurance that Bad fulfilled his divinely-appointed earthly mission. We are grateful for the e-mails we shared during our mission. We send our love and gratitude to each of you!

So sorry to learn of Brad’s passing. I had several cases with him during his career. We traveled together to a number of locations for depositions. He was an able opponent and advocate and a great fellow. Even though we were always on the opposite side of cases, we remained friendly. Condolences to his family and friends and the many who will deeply miss him.
