

Ann Condie Brenay Merrill

August 2, 1947 ~ December 31, 2024

Ann Condie Merrill (formerly Brenay), beloved maiden, mother, and matriarch, passed away gracefully on New Year's Eve, 2024. She has joined her husband, Hyde McCune Merrill, who preceded her in death. She is survived and celebrated by her two children, Mark Condie Brenay and Sarah Jensen.

Ann Condie was born in Salt Lake City, Utah, on August 2, 1947, to Lyman Wilson Condie and Mary Skidmore Condie. She grew up in Salt Lake City with her eight siblings: Marilyn, Lyman, Alan, Jeanette, Wayne, Catherine, Paul, and Patricia. Ann obtained a master's degree in social work at the University of Utah, where she graduated summa cum laude and played for one of the university's first female tennis teams.

Quietly brilliant, graceful, and unwaveringly kind, Ann dedicated her life to serving others. She was a social worker with LDS Family Services for over thirty years, specializing in family therapy, addiction recovery, and adoption services. She became the first female director of an LDS Family Services region, overseeing adoptions in Michigan, New York, Ohio, and Pennsylvania.

From her first marriage to Joseph Derrick Brenay, Ann brought two children into the world: Mark and Sarah. She raised her children with unfailing love, wisdom, and strength and instilled in them the value of curiosity and an open mind and heart.

Late in life, she found true joy and love in the companionship of Hyde McCune Merrill, a college sweetheart with whom she reconnected decades later. They married in 2013 and spent many sun-filled days together in their remaining years.

Her gentle soul will be sorely missed. To the end of her life, she had a heart full of kindness and a mean tennis swing.

All are welcome to celebrate Ann at a funeral service on January 6, 2024, at 11:00 a.m., which will be held at Larkin Sunset Gardens, 1950 E. 10600 S, Sandy, Utah. A viewing will be held at the same location on January 5, 2024, at 6:00 p.m. In lieu of flowers, we invite you to make donations to the charitable organization Preborn (https://preborn.com/) to honor her years of service in placing children for adoption.
