

Jose Luis Vazquez Hernandez

August 26, 1978 ~ January 24, 2026

For his anger lasts only a moment, but his favor lasts a lifetime. Weeping may stay for the night, but rejoicing comes in the morning. Psalm 30:5
 Jose Luis Vazquez Hernandez, 47, passed away on January 24, 2026. He was born in San Luis Potosí, Mexico, and built a life defined by love, hard work, and devotion to his family.

 Jose was a hardworking, loving, and funny man who never hesitated to help others. He worked in roofing, giving his all every day, always pushing forward to provide for his family. No matter how tired he was, he never showed it—he kept going, always making things happen for the people he loved.

 He was known for his goofy personality and infectious sense of humor. Jose was never a serious guy; he loved to make his family laugh and feel proud. Music was always playing around him, filling the home with joy, and he was an amazing cook who brought everyone together through his food.

 In the summers, Jose loved spending time outdoors with his family, going hiking or taking them to the lake—creating memories that will be cherished forever. His love showed not only in his actions, but in the way he lived every day with heart, laughter, and generosity.

 Jose leaves behind a family who meant everything to him and who will forever carry his love, strength, and laughter in their hearts. He will be deeply missed and never forgotten.
