

Brenda Lynn Ford

May 17, 1962 ~ October 6, 2025

Dear Shanna, What a beautiful obituary and, yes, I would say you did your mom proud with it! I see a lot of your mom in you. There is a physical resemblance, but it seems you got her heart, as well. Lucky you! It is obvious how much your mom was cherished by her family and what wonderful children she raised! I know you were a blessing and comfort to her in her final days. Because she was loved so much, the missing of her will be great. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. Much love, Leslie and Tim Spong

To the amazing Ford family...my love goes out to all of you! Although I don't know you well, I adored taking your family photos many times. It was always so clear how much love there is between all of you. Your mama loved being with you and it was evident how much love she had for each and every one of you. I hope you find her in your hearts when you need her. Her light and love will always be around and with you! Much love to you all! ♥■

Jason (and family) I'm heartbroken to hear about your mom's passing. I know how much she meant to you, and I can only imagine the pain you're feeling. Please remember you're not alone — I'm here for you always. Love you

Dear Jason, Dear grieving Ford family. Bianca sent us the sad news of the death of your beloved mother Brenda. Our thoughts are with you during these sad days and we send you our deepest condolences. It is very painful to lose a loved one from your family, especially when it is your beloved mother who has been the center of the family. We have learned that Brenda had to fight cancer for many long months and ultimately lost her battle for recovery. Now your dear mother has found peace and eternal rest in God. Your mother will never leave you completely, even though she is no longer physically with you. She will always be with you in your thoughts. Our deepest condolences, Martin and Gerlinde Euskirchen-Kuchenheim Germany
