

Brent Adair Scott

December 11, 1964 ~ September 6, 2021

To the Amassasor, You will be sorely missed my friend! You were the core to all my humor, bouncing off each other... The best of times! I will truly miss your energy, kindness and overall personality. You are second to none!! My heart goes out to the families. God bless.

- Brett Elsmore

Brent died too soon. We’re so sorry, he was a good one.

- Lynda Haight

Brent is a great person and I enjoyed being his broker and trainer in real estate. I enjoyed our conversations and laughs. I loved seeing him improve his business and help his clients. He will truly be missed.

- Cheryl Acker

Jett, I would love to go and pay my and Mike's respects to Brent. I have to work until 8:00 PM. I hope we can get together another time so I can still do that. My sentiments to you and his family. Monica

- Monica Mora

Jeanette, What a beautiful tribute to your husband! He sounds amazing. I'm so sorry for your loss. Peace to you and your family.

- Joni Carrillo-Harry

It was my great privilege to know Brent Scott since we were young - and one of his many great gifts was how he always maintained that youthful zeal for life. He was always one of the finest, funniest and firmest friends a person could have and he could turn anything into an adventure. He was not only a great friend, but a great human being. My condolences to his family and many friends and to all who were fortunate enough to know Brent. I cherish all the wonderful memories that those of us who were lucky enough to be friends with him will carry with us forever. The world is a less fine and less fun place without him in it and he and his smile, his infectious enthusiasm and his presence will be much missed.

Dear Jett & Family, We were terribly saddened to learn of Brent’s passing. It is incredibly difficult to absorb such a loss but we hope you will always find comfort in all the wonderful memories you surely have as a family together. He was the epitome of a husband, father, friend and colleague. He had a quiet strength, great pride in his family and a genuine kindness for everyone. He leaves a strong legacy of caring and goodness that will always be associated with your family. Extending our deepest sympathies. John & Liz Moore
