

Brent LaVern Sharp

April 7, 1944 ~ January 2, 2021

Brent, My heart aches that you’re gone. Thank you for being the father figure I needed, the guardian angel that showed unconditional love to a scrappy beat down kid, and a friend who’s advice I called on throughout my adult life. I rejoice in celebrating your life and proud and honored to have known you. All my love Teague Fair winds, and following seas!

Dear Claudia and family, I am so sorry to learn about Brent's passing. I didn't know that he had struggled recently with multiple health issues and hospitalizations. Bent was one of those people who lived life to the fullest. I know he loved his family and would do anything for any one of them. I always appreciated his sense of humor and yet he could be totally serious when the occasion merited it. I remember sending a lot of business to his "Mr. Brake" shops and he always treated everyone with the highest regard and did his best to take care of each customer. He was honest and forthright in his business and always went the extra mile. I am extremely lucky to have had Brent as one of my friends. It's too bad that we are in the middle of this pandemic making it very hard to get together in any kind of a group setting. May the Lord bless you and your family in the coming weeks and months with his healing influence. We will miss Brent, but we know that it will be only a short separation. Dean Harmon
