So sorry to hear of your loss. Bishop Taylor is an amazing man, who showed so much love to my family. He ordained me a deacon and priest. He was there for me through my teenage years. I remember spending many early Saturday mornings playing basketball with Bishop Taylor and the young men in Coltman . Your family was always there for me and my family taking us to mutual, practices, campouts, scouts, & school activities. Bishop Taylor is a great role model of mine and I sincerely appreciate the time he spent helping my family and myself. He lived a great life and thank you for sharing him with our Ward and your neighbors, the Durtschi's. Love always, Lane Durtschi

Hello Vicky So sorry to hear about your husband’s passing. He was the most likable person during my mission in Salt Lake City and both of you were very dear to me. I remember when he got us front door “seats” at the Pioneers Parade in 2019, what a pleasant memory ■ God bless you and keep you safe until you both meet again. Sincerely Verónica Bishop

I was saddened upon hearing of Brent's passing...he truly was one of the 'good ones'! I worked with him for a number of years with Waxie Sanitary Supply and appreciated his goodness and friendship. My prayers and best wishes for Vicki and family during this difficult time. Thankfully we know the purpose of life and what awaits us hereafter.

Brent had such a positive and joyful personality that it was always fun to be around him. Fortunately, as a cousin, I got to see him fairly often even though we lived far away. I can still remember as a boy when our parents would take us back to Idaho and we would get to see him. I looked forward to those trips very much and to some of the escapades we would have. He made everything around him a little brighter. We will miss him and look forward someday to seeing him again.

I have been blessed to have worked with Brent at Waxie. I worked hard to recruit him. He was not an easy sell and I will always be grateful to Vicki for helping deliver him. He was everything we thought he would be. He helped us in very significant ways. I will remember Brent for his integrity and business sense. Miki and I send our deepest sympathies to Vicki and the family.

Vicki, you and Brent were such a stand out couple in our ward. Great examples of loving spouses and stalwart disciples of Christ. We're so grateful to have been your ministering couple and fellow byu fans. Vicki, when you need to get out for a swig run just call me. Sometimes it's the best therapy . We love you and will help you

Dear Vicki and family, It has been over 50 years since we have seen one another. I have not forgotten our high school years nor you and Brent. It is with sadness that I write this note of sympathy to you and your family. You and Brent were good friends to me and we truly regret his passing so early in life. I'm so grateful for the knowledge of the Plan of Salvation that we share. Hold tight to that knowledge Vicki, and we aren't too far away from you, as we live in South Jordan. This is a difficult time for all of you and will be in the future. The pain of loosing a loved one never goes away but does soften over time. You are in our prayers.

There was not a finer man who had a beautiful sweetheart for a wife. That smile will definitely be missed. He can be so proud of his wonderful posterity. If they all follow his example of how to give to others, love your family, enjoy a good laugh, and I could go on and on. It has been such a privilege to claim him as a friend and a good husband. He knew how to serve his fellowmen and women. He will be missed by all of us.

Sweet Vicki, I am so grateful I was able to attend Brent's services virtually. It was such a special service with love, joy and hope. I enjoyed so much learning more about your amazing companion...he truly was a builder. You both were so positive and personal with those you serviced at the MTC. It was truly our pleasure to be there to witness this and to participate with you. I cannot imagine the feelings and sorrow you are experiencing now. I watch my father struggle with his loneliness and know that it is only through the comforting blessings of the Atonement of our Savior Jesus Christ that he has managed these past seven months since Mom passed. I know you will be blessed also. I love you and am so grateful for our time together. Kathy Bertasso
