Patricia Evans Riley

March 17, 1943 ~ November 23, 2014

Pat Riley, born 17 March 1943 in Salt Lake City, Utah to Marjorie Lillian Jenkins and Harold Lomax Evans, passed away 23 November, 2014 in Medford, OR.

She graduated from South High School in Salt Lake City. She worked for many years for General Electric where she met her late husband Lawrence L. Riley. They moved to Brookings, OR and began a wonderful life in a beautiful setting, with a host of dear friends and neighbors.

Pat was creative and adventurous; she loved home decorating and cooking for everyone. She opened her home and her table to lift, cheer, and bless. Pat knew the meaning of true Christian charity and service. She could be found daily providing help and support to her many friends in a variety of ways. She is well-loved, will be long remembered and sorely missed.

Preceded in death by husband Larry, parent, and beloved dog Maxi. Survived by brother Brent (Christie), Heber City, UT; four nephews: Peter, Heber City, UT; Brad (Susan) and their children Lillian, Miles, and Harold, Salt Lake City, UT; Carl, Heber City, UT; Aaron, Salt Lake City, UT; and Patches.

Funeral services will be held 11:00 AM on Monday, December 8, at Larkin Mortuary, 260 E. South Temple, SLC with a viewing starting at 10:00 AM. Interment Salt Lake City Cemetery.
