I have had the great privilege of working with Brent for many years. I always looked forward to seeing him on projects that I was working on because of his great knowledge and expertise that he brought to the table. He was a great man and always showed the very highest level of respect for all. I wish his family the best in these sorrowful times and know that he will be deeply missed.

I had the pleasure of working with Brent and enjoyed his friendship for decades at Intermountain Health. He was a fantastic coworker and true caregiver. I'll always cherish the days and nights spent talking with him and working with him on projects and go-lives. He was always a gentleman and lived to very high standards. He loved his sons and always expressed that to me. His example made my life better. He will be missed very much! God bless him.

As a part of the Enterprise Network Team at Intermountain, I was privileged to have worked with Brent closely on numerous occasions. Brent always lit up at work when he told of his adventures with his boys, supporting them in their activities. He was always willing to help and freely give of his time to instruct and come up with solutions. He was a great mentor to me and others as he shared his gifted talents for our benefit. As he will be missed by so many here, I am happy to have known a wonderfully gentle soul.

Growing up with the McNamara boys I was able to see firsthand how much he loved his family. I remember him driving us to football practices, going to movies, playing video games alongside us and of course yelling at us for playing video games until 3 in the morning (or later). Motorcycles, cars, planes, computers, you name it, and he knew all there was to know. He was fully committed to everything 100%. His technical approach to things has directly translated into his sons, the McNamara men are the most artistic and technical people I know. I'm grateful for the nearly 20 years I was able to call him a friend. My condolences to the family. Rest easy Brent!

Dear McNamara family. I am so very sorry for the loss of your amazing dad. I had the pleasure of knowing him here at Intermountain Health. He was always so kind and helpful and was always so nice to talk to. He will truly be missed. I hope that you will find peace and comfort in the memories that you have all built together throughout the years. With heartfelt condolences. Angie Smith

I have had the incredible opportunity to work with Brent for many years and he was an incredible man. He was always willing to help out no matter the situation. Brent had many great traits, one of the qualities I tried to learn from Brent is that he was always cool under pressure. I never saw him lose his composure and we worked some nasty issues together. We miss ya big guy! Trav
