

Kevin Jack Steuterman

October 19, 1989 ~ January 8, 2021

Kevin Jack Steuterman, 31, of Clinton, Utah, tragically lost his life in an avalanche while snowboarding near Park City, Utah on Friday morning, January 8, 2021.

As a young child growing up in Alpharetta, GA. Kevin loved everything about the outdoors. From snowboarding, to hunting, camping, travel, flying, scuba diving and even barbecuing, Kevin did everything with the same level of intensity and intentionality, striving to give life his absolute best.

He attended Louisiana State University where his participation in ROTC would lead to an eight-year career in the United States Air Force. Kevin was gifted with the natural abilities of a born leader and would rise to the rank of Captain. Upon leaving the military, Kevin transitioned to the Space Reserves with a lifelong ambition of someday traveling to the moon. Most recently Kevin held the position of senior project manager with Northrop Grumman.

In June of 2020, Kevin met the love of his life, Miss Karissa Kessinger. Karissa and Kevin enjoyed sharing the symphony, art, ballroom dancing as well as all outdoor activities. The couple were making plans to marry and share a life together when the accident occurred.

Kevin is survived by his father, Craig Steuterman; mother, Kim Steuterman; brother, Colin Steuterman; Sister-in-law, Sarah Brannon Steuterman and niece, Layne Marie Steuterman, aunts and uncles Erika Steuterman, John and Terry Daniels, Bruce and Patrice Petrik, Dave Petrik, Jackie Buckman, Mary and Chris Nielsen. Kevin was blessed to have 15 cousins.

He is preceded in death by his grandparents Jack and Marie Steuterman, Jack and Connie Petrik and uncle Ron Steuterman.

Visitation and a celebration of life service will be held for family and friends on Friday, January 15, 2021 at 10 am at Larkin Mortuary, 260 E South Temple, Salt Lake City UT.

For friends who are unable to attend the services in Utah, a second memorial service will held at Mount Pisgah United Methodist Church, 2850 Old Alabama Road, Johns Creek, GA. Friday, January 22, 2021 at 10 am.

In lieu of flowers, the family invites you to make a contribution in Kevin’s honor to help build the Sports & Leadership Training Center at Mully Children’s Family https://mcfus.org/sports-academy/ or help the wonderful Summit County Search and Rescue teams at https://fscsar.org/donate.html
