

Diania Jackson Smith

July 30, 1950 ~ May 7, 2024

Diania Jackson Smith

Born July 30, 1950, Died May 7, 2024

Diania died from a fall while helping her husband.

She was the mother to four sons and one daughter: Carter (Lisa), Ana (Josh), Samuel (Rachell), Carson (Megan) and Calvin (China).

She has ten grandchildren: Addison, Hazel, Joanie, Silas, Seven, Harper, Griffin, Jackson, Berlin, and Lucy.

She suffered in her later years from an acute memory loss and dementia.

She was a beautiful bride and was married to Sheldon Lange Smith in the Salt Lake Temple on January 11, 1972.

She finished her bachelors degree in art education from Fairhaven College in Bellingham, Washington.

Diania was preceded in death by her parents Lowell Robert and Amy Davies Jackson.

She taught art and history at Murray High School, took a break to raise her children and then in her later years worked as a wonderful wall artist. She painted hundreds of walls with scenes to the delight of many clients.

She was loved by all who knew her. She will be missed.

Funeral services for Diania will be held Saturday, the 18th of May at 10:00 o’clock at the 27th ward building in the Holladay South Stake.
5450 South Holladay Blvd, UT