Michael Patrick Anderson

March 17, 1964 ~ July 25, 2016

Michael Patrick Anderson passed away July 25, 2016 at the age of 52. He was survived by his children Timber and Clayton Anderson, his grandchildren Sidda and Walter Anderson, as well as his sister Michelle Lauderman-Miller, his nieces and nephew Tyler, Kayla, and Kirsten Miller, and his parents David Anderson and Mildred King. He was also survived by many close friends that he loved dearly.

Mike had a passion for many things. He loved motorcycles and was almost always seen riding his Harleys around. He was very into fitness and keeping himself it shape. Over the years he competed in several body building shows and won a few of them. He also had a passion for business and he built a handful of successful companies over the course of his life. Though Mike had a rough start in this world, he really grew to make something of himself.

Mike was an adventurous, loving, and caring man. Though he had a tough exterior and could be intimidating to those who didn\t know him, the people closest to him knew that he had one of the softest hearts you could find. He also had a passion for people and was always looking out for those who were close to him. If someone was in need, he was there to help them out. Mike touched so many lives and will be greatly missed by everyone that knew him.
