
Leonard Stanley Ross

March 4, 1945 ~ July 28, 2024

Leonard, age 79, passed away in Midvale, Utah on July 28, 2024. Leonard was born on March 4, 1945, to Harold J. and Evelyn Ross on March 4, 1945, in Los Angeles. He was the only child. They later settled in Bakersfield where he lived most of his life. He met his wife on a blind date that his mom and future mother-in-law setup. They had 2 dates then married. They raised six children in Bakersfield. He absolutely loved his wife and was an amazing fun, loving father, and a servant of God. He was a doctor of chiropractic for 40 years. A career he was passionate about and loved with every fiber of his being.

He is survived by Mya-Lisa Ludwig (daughter), Adam Ross (son), Ginger Ross Potter (daughter), Joseph Ross (son), Phillip Ross (son), Leia Ross (daughter), Chris Ludwig (son-in-law), Rob Potter (son-in-law), Desi Ross (daughter-in-law), Emily Ross (daughter-in-law), 23 grandchildren, and five great grandchildren.

He is preceded in death by his wife, Martha Ross, and parents Harold J. and Evelyn Ross.

A celebration of life will be held in Martha and Leonard's honor on August 3rd, 2024 at 11:00 am, at the Aspen Hills Ward (9855 South 2300 East, Sandy, UT 84092) with a viewing from 10:00-10:45 am prior.
