She graduated from Preston High School and met Ray at a dance center known as the Persiana in Preston, Idaho. They fell in love and married on June 10, 1948, marriage later solemnized in the Oakland LDS Temple. In the spring of 1949 they started their life farming potatoes and raised their 4 children for about 30 years in Tulelake, California then returning to Preston in 1982.

Jeanne loved spending time with her family and serving in her LDS wards. She also loved sitting outdoors from her home in the summers of Preston visiting with neighbors.
