Lynn Stone Scott

March 23, 1931 ~ July 20, 2022

Lynn Stone Scott passed away on July 20, 2022. Family means everything to our dad. He is adoring husband and loving father to his wife Ann Bowman Scott and his daughters Elizabeth Scott Baskin and Julie Scott Myers, and grand-daughters Cate and Lucy. And as proud son of parents Lola Stone and David Amor Scott, and caring brother of Bonnie, Brent, Lue, and Dorothy. Lynn was born and raised in Ogden, Utah and resided with his family in Salt Lake City. His final resting place is beautiful Larkin Sunset Lawn with a lovely view of the valley.

Dad is our hero and we never have stopped learning from him. He taught us to be passionate about our interests and to believe in the gratification of hard work. To learn about others and seek a common bond and accept differences. He taught us fierce devotion to family and to never give up on ourselves or each other. And to have faith and trust in the universe. We will miss you dad but you are alive in us – your girls.
