Words CAN'T even express the hurt my heart feels right now, not only because you are gone. Mostly because for the last 6 years I have been absent. I have lost three very important people to me these last 3 years. I really didn't get to say goodbye to any of you. I am SOOO sorry. I hope you know I am fighting again and am in treatment. I am 4 months sober today and I know you, my mom, and my grandpa are with me helping me fight this battle and cheering me on. I WILL make you guys proud. I love you sooo much Byron please give my mom a big hug and tell her how much I love her. I will forever be grateful to have been able to call you my dad!!

My dearest brother. I miss you so much but I'm glad you're finally out of pain. The Night after you died, I looked up in the sky and saw a blank spot in the stars. One of the stars have gone dim. Because like what you were for us. You're warmth shown more brightly than the sun. My life will forever be Darkened without you there. The way you've affected so many lives by making a seat the absurdity in life and laugh. Boy, did we laugh with you! Your warmth and Fire sweat is a loss to the world, not just me. We were like twins, I've known you my entire life from the time you came home from the hospital at one year of age. I have loved you even though I told mom to take you back to the hospital. I have loved you every day of your life. And I will love you every day for the rest of mine. I miss you Byron. I miss you so much.

We'll always remember Byron for his gentle and happy disposition, his love of life and laughter... He was just the kind of guy you'd want for a neighbor, a friend, a relative, a nephew. Rest in peace and happiness, Byron.
