Jeffery Wayne Johnson

December 26, 1965 ~ December 31, 2016

Jeffery Wayne Johnson grew up in the Cottonwood area with his parents and 4 siblings. After graduation from Cottonwood High School, Jeff moved to Dallas/Fort Worth where he worked as a manager in Food service. Once he retuned to Utah, Jeff became a Master Plumber. As much as he enjoyed plumbing, he loved teaching at the Salt Lake Community College Apprenticeship Program even more.

Jeff loved taking long drives to see where the road went. He loved the outdoors, whether it was Fishing, hunting, camping, taking pictures, riding 4 wheelers or hiking.

Jeff was the true salt of the earth and would do anything for anyone. To know him was to love him. He was kind, loving, loud, caring, and had a personality that was bigger than life. He had a large boisterous laugh that was infectious to everyone around him. His favorite thing was to spend time with his loved ones.

Jeff is preceded in death by his mother, Dianne Johnson, and his brother-in-law, Stoney Winterton. He is survived by his father Lynn Johnson, his son Zac Johnson, the love of his life Cindi Moler Glad, his siblings: Robyn (Troy) Phillips, Travis (Liz) Johnson, Jennifer Winterton, and Gail (Lori) Johnson, his granddaughter Elaine and many cousins, nieces and nephews.

Please join us in a celebration of his life on Saturday, January 14, 2017 at Larkin Sunset Gardens 1950 East Dimple Dell Road (10600 South), Sandy, Utah 84092. A viewing will be held from 9:30am to 10:45am. The funeral will start at 11:00am.

The world is a better place because he was here.
