

Calley Jean Nagel

November 5, 1997 ~ December 14, 2022

You do not know me but we share a common bond. I lost my son to addiction. He was 25 also. They are the most caring and sensitive souls. I think that is why addiction takes them, I believe their souls were just to softhearted and kind to be able to deal with the bad and stay here on this earth. Be proud! You have a beautiful daughter and she will watch over you till you join her. God Bless...

- Teresa Shields

Hi I just heard about Calley I work Whis her at D.R Horton . I'm sorry for your lost . I'm going to miss her she was so nice.

- Haley gaston