He married Brittany Lynne Stainbrook on December 13, 2014 in the Draper, Utah Latter Day Saint Temple. Together they had three beautiful children: Brooklyn Rose, Claire Alexandria and Hunter Thomas. He dearly loved his wife and children and shared with them a lifetime of beautiful memories that will be forever treasured, ranging from simple moments such as building legos to biking the Hiawatha Trail or building sand castles at the beach.

Matt was a Vice President at First Utah Bank where he was involved in SBA loan underwriting. He loved his associations at the bank and enjoyed underwriting loans. He was also active in his Ward and was currently serving as an Elders Quorum instructor.

Matt was passionate about following and cheering for the Utah Utes, Utah Jazz and Pittsburgh Steelers. He loved talking stats, scores, players and everything football. Matt was equally passionate about his love of history, especially the World War II era and sharing his insights with his Dad.

Matt will be dearly missed by his wife and children, his parents, and sisters Katie (Terrell) Lee, and Pamela (Greg) Palmer, along with many cousins, aunts, uncles, and friends.
