

McCoy Evans

November 12, 1942 ~ April 14, 2023

McCoy Evans was born November 12, 1942, in Heber, Utah, to Walter and Barbara Duncan Evans. He passed away April 14, 2023, at home in West Valley City, Utah, after recent recent hospitalizations for pneumonia and a stroke.

He was married to Pearl Ginn, later divorced; Louisa Garcia, later divorced; and Myrth Davis on November 1, 2004, and they were together over 40 years. He was preceded in death by his parents; wife; and siblings, Vickie Hammond, Barbarajean Young, Jeff Evans, Walter Evans, and Shane Evans; and stepdaughters, Cindy Decker and Marilyn Eyre. McCoy is survived by siblings, Dixie Hardman, Mildred Michaely and Curtis Evans; children Lacy Stewart, Dena Miller, Stacy Talmadge, Quent Evans, Perry (Hilarie) Evans, Shane Evans; stepchildren, Michael Nickell, Debbie Okelberry, and Tina (Corey) Bruehl; and many grandchildren.

McCoy worked street maintenance for Salt Lake City, and later worked as a heavy equipment operator for Staker Paving, and retired from Staker. He loved his family, the outdoors, hunting, fishing, riding horses, watching old westerns, wrastles, and his dogs, Ruckus and Harley, who kept him company and gave him purpose after the recent passing of his wife.

McCoy’s family thanks all who have visited and helped meet his needs. A celebration of life will be held on Tuesday, April 25, from 6:00-8:00 PM at Larkin Mortuary, 260 E. South Temple, Salt Lake City, UT 84111.
