

Myra Scott Platt

August 21, 1948 ~ January 15, 2022

Myra Scott Platt, mother, grandmother, sister and friend, was reunited with her son, parents and Heavenly Father on January 15, 2022.

Myra was born August 21, 1948, in Salt Lake City, Utah to William Clifford Scott and Anna M. Vissing. She raised her family in Murray, Utah. After she retired, she moved to Syracuse, Utah.

Myra earned her Master's Degree in Nursing and had a successful career serving her community in many ways. She took her expertise into the elementaries where she was fondly referred to as "The AIDS Lady." Myra's love for nursing was shared on a global level when she had the opportunity to teach nursing in China.

Myra was a lifelong member of the LDS church. She served in many callings but loved the primary. She served as a missionary for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in the Family History Department in Salt Lake City where she fell in love with genealogy.

Myra enjoyed shopping, kept TJ MAXX on the map, loved singing, sewing and loving on her grandchildren.

Survived by her children Brandon Platt (Tish), Shannon Elmer (Ben), Tyler Platt, Kimberly Platt, Kathryn Porter (Steve), her sister Karla Balling and brother Mark Scott (Farrell), and 16 grandchildren.

Preceded in death by her father William Scott, her mother Anna (Vissing) Goodwin, nephew Thomas Balling, niece Laura Balling, and her son Spencer Platt.

We love you and miss you, Gramma My!

A viewing will be held Friday, January 21, 2022, from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm at Larkin Mortuary, 260 East South Temple. Funeral services will be Saturday, January 22, 2022, at 11:00 am in the Larkin Mortuary Chapel. Family and friends may call upon the family one hour prior to the service. Interment and dedication of the grave will follow at Salt Lake City Cemetery, 4th Avenue and N Street.