

J Blaine Grant

January 28, 1933 ~ May 15, 2021

Our dad passed away into the loving arms of his sweetheart LouGene on Saturday, May 15, 2021 in St. George, Utah. Blaine was born on January 28, 1933 to Owen and LaVon Grant in Granger, Utah.

Blaine attended and graduated from Cyprus High School, where he was on the high school basketball team. With the help of his car he won the heart of LouGene Rees. Shortly after graduating they got married. Blaine enlisted into the Army and they moved to Olympia, WA where they started their life together. Together they had four daughters. Blaine was a proud provider and worked hard to support his family. He was a milkman for Winder Dairy an agent for Farmers Insurance until his retirement.

His passions were to hunt, fish and being in the outdoors. He took pride in caring for his beautiful flowers at his house in St. George. Blaine was most proud of his daughters and their families, always supporting and loving each of them.

Survived by his daughters Patti (Les, deceased) Dawes, Kathy (Steve) Knorr, Laurie (Bob) Rufener, Barbi (Sammy Pacheco) Grant; grandchildren Amber Knorr, Mindy Dawes, Casey (Melanee) Knorr, Kollett (Norm) Christensen, Johnnie (Liz) Dawes, Jason Shauan, Matt (Cali) Shauan; and 13 great-grandchildren. Preceded in death by his wife LouGene; parents; sister JoAnn Houtz; brothers Bob Grant and Gale Grant.

Special thanks to his friend Elaine Larson for her love and companionship to our dad during these last few years.
