

Jennifer Hine Mckay Foni

May 7, 1960 ~ July 16, 2024

Jennifer Hine Mckay Foni's life was a beautiful tapestry of love, faith, and family. Born on May 7th, 1960 in Aotearoa, New Zealand, She was born to parents: Wattie Horton Mckay and Bessie Hine Hohaia. She is the eldest of 8 children. She was raised in a talented family that cherished its Maori royalty heritage and instilled in her the importance of family genealogy.

Jennifer's love for music and poetry was a source of inspiration to all who knew her. Her commitment to the gospel and her family was unwavering. Despite the challenges she faced, including the loss of her beloved husband Joseph Albert, Jennifer remained steadfast in her beliefs. Through divine timing she was able to find love again. She married Sio Foni and together with their blended family of 8 she counseled and raised her children to be strong and faithful. She was a loving wife, mother, grandmother and friend. Her legacy lives on through her 8 children, and 23 grandchildren, and the countless lives she touched throughout her journey.

Funeral service will be held on Friday, August 2nd, 2024 at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints located at 3300 S. 4440 W., West Valley City, Utah. The family service will be held from 8:30 am - 11am, followed by the Bishop's service from 11 am - 12 noon. Interment at Larkin Sunset Lawn. A recording of the service will be available to watch online using the "Watch Service" button above.