

Juliette Rosette Mehboueth

December 10, 1951 ~ February 11, 2025

Life of Juliette Rosette Mehboueth

In Loving Memory of Juliette Rosette Mehboueth

December 10, 1951 – February 11, 2025

With deep sorrow but immense gratitude for a life well lived, we announce the passing of our beloved Juliette Rosette Mehboueth. She was a Queen in her village of Bafoussam, Cameroon, known as Queen Ma'afo Ndamnet. She left this world on February 11, 2025, leaving behind a legacy of love, compassion, faith, and service—one that will never be forgotten.

A Life Devoted to Love and Service

Born in Bafoussam, Cameroon, Juliette Rosette embodied strength, wisdom, and boundless generosity. She was a talented stylist, religious educator, and the founder of MRJ International, a charitable organization devoted to uplifting the lives of prisoners, orphans, widows, the poor, and the forgotten.

Her life was a testament to unconditional love. She never turned away anyone in need—whether it was an orphan needing a home, a prisoner seeking hope, or a patient longing for comfort. She walked into hospitals, prisons, and orphanages with open arms, bringing light to the darkest corners of humanity.

She was celebrated as "the mother of the poor" and "the healer of broken hearts."

A Loving Wife, Mother, and Grandmother

For 56 years, Juliette was the devoted wife of Joseph Tchada and remained his loving widow for nine years after his passing.

She was the cherished mother of ten children, twenty-two grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren, all of whom will carry on her legacy of faith and love.

Her family extended far beyond blood ties—everyone she met became family, embraced by her infinite love.

A Queen Among Us

As Ma'afo Ndamnet, Juliette Rosette was more than a mother and humanitarian—she was a Queen, a leader, and a symbol of faith, unconditional love, and generosity wherever she went.

She spoke through actions—giving, sharing, and leading with humility. She taught us that true royalty is found in service, sacrifice, and love for others.

She believed in the power of prayer, spending countless nights on her knees, seeking God's guidance for her children and for all those she helped. Her knees bore the marks of devotion—scars from kneeling in prayer for others.

She initiated neighborhood prayers and rosary gatherings and converted many souls to faith, teaching them about God and the power of good actions.

A Heart That Knew No Boundaries

Juliette's love knew no limits. She gave everything she had to others—her time, her clothes, her money, her resources, and her heart. She lived for others.

She visited prisons, bringing comfort, hope, medicine, and prayer.

She cared for orphans and street children, ensuring they had food, shelter, and education.

She spent days in hospitals, tending to the sick and comforting the lonely.

Even in her own struggles, she never lost faith. She sacrificed everything to ensure her family and those in need had a future. She taught her children to wake up early, work hard, pray fervently, and never give up.

Her joy was in giving, and she gave without expectation.

A Smile That Healed the World

Her smile was divine—a healer, a beacon of light, and a reflection of God's love.

Her smile erased pain.

Her smile brought peace.

Her smile was the embrace of a mother who never turned anyone away.

She took the Word of God literally, living out Matthew 25:31-40:

"When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit upon his glorious throne, and all the nations* will be assembled before him. And he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. He will place the sheep on his right and the goats on his left. Then the king will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me.'

Then the righteous* will answer him and say, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? When did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? When did we see you ill or in prison, and visit you?' And the king will say to them in reply, 'Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me."

She carried the crosses of life like Jesus Christ, with faith and courage. Even when her burdens were unbearable, she bore them with honor and managed them with love.

A Legacy That Will Live Forever

Juliette's life was a living gospel—a message of faith, resilience, and boundless love.

She has now returned to Heaven, but her legacy remains in the countless lives she touched.

Funeral and Memorial Services

A memorial service to honor and celebrate her life will take place at:

The Catholic Church of the Blessed Sacrament

9757 South 1700 East, Sandy, Utah, USA

Saturday, Feb 22 at 10:00 am.

She will be laid to rest in eternal peace.

Family and friends are invited to a reception at The Blessed Sacrament Hall after Mass to share memories and honor her beautiful spirit.

Rest in Eternal Glory, Our Beloved Mother

2 Timothy 4:7-8

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me but also to all who long for His appearing."

As we say goodbye, we take comfort in knowing that she is now in Heaven, watching over us, guiding us, and blessing us—as she always has.

She is a true Saint. Sainte Juliette Rosette.

Favorite Song:

"DANS LE MONDE DE DIEU, JE SERAI AMOUR."

("In Heaven, I will be Love.")

Her love will never fade, her legacy will never die, and her spirit will live on in all of us.

Rest in peace, Ma'afo Ndamnet, Sainte Juliette Rosette, Mother of the Poor.

Please pray for us. Your love will guide us forever.

Hobbies & Interests:

1. Helping Others – Her greatest joy came from giving, serving, and uplifting those in need, including orphans, widows, prisoners, and the sick.
2. Prayer & Faith – She spent countless hours in prayer and religious devotion, often leading neighborhood prayers and rosary gatherings.
3. Sewing & Fashion Design – As a talented stylist, she used her skills to create clothing, often giving her finest work to others in need.
4. Cooking & Sharing Meals – She loved preparing large meals and serving others before herself, ensuring that no one around her went hungry.
5. Education & Mentorship – She was passionate about learning and making sure children, especially her own, received a good education.
6. Community Work & Charity – She dedicated much of her life to volunteering and serving others through her charitable organization, MRJ International.
7. Music & Singing – She enjoyed singing hymns and gospel songs, often using music as a way to uplift and inspire.

8. Travel for Missionary Work – She traveled to different cities and regions in Cameroon to visit hospitals, prisons, and orphanages, always bringing comfort and hope.

Church & Religious Involvement:

1. Devoted Catholic – She was deeply committed to her faith and the teachings of Christ.
2. Active Member of the Church – She was a dedicated member of The Catholic Women at the Cathedral of Bafoussam, a prayer group and parishioner at Blessed Sacrament and St Thomas Moore Catholic Church, and participated in numerous church activities and prayer groups.
3. Rosary & Prayer Leader – She led Rosary prayer groups in her neighborhood and encouraged people to grow in faith.
4. Religious Educator – She taught religious education and preach about God's love and helped convert many to the faith.

Civic & Community Engagement:

1. Founder & Director of MRJ International – A charity focused on helping prisoners, orphans, widows, and the underprivileged.
2. Prison Ministry – Regularly visited prisons, bringing food, clothing, and encouragement to inmates.
3. Hospital & Orphanage Volunteer – Dedicated much of her life to helping the sick, abandoned children, and those in need.
4. Advocate for Education & Empowerment – She encouraged young people to pursue education and hard work.
5. Mentor & Community Mother – Everyone who met her became family, as she nurtured and cared for people beyond her own children.