

Kittibo A Yok

February 10, 1966 ~ September 5, 2024

Our beloved Kittibo A Yok sadly left us much too soon as he passed away on Thursday, September 5, 2024. Loved and missed by all, Kit is survived by his wife, Stacy; his children, Jason & Stacy, Courtney & Alheli, and Kayla & Eric; his grandchildren, Carter, Max, Abigail, Aymee, Jayde, Paizlee, Ezra, and Axel; his nephews, Aaron, Dylan, and Cameron; his niece, Gia; and his siblings, Chan, Penny, and Sam.

After being born in Bangkok, Thailand, Kit and his parents, Soramith and Borirath B. Yok, moved to Camp Pendleton, California in 1977. Eventually Kit and his family moved to Utah where Kit graduated from Bingham High School in 1984. In 2000, Kit met the love of his life, Stacy, and they were married on October 13, 2001. After working at Interstate Brick for many years, Kit became a successful entrepreneur in 2006 as he opened his own business, RM Carpet Cleaning. On October 24, 2014, Kit became a naturalized citizen of the United States of America.

Kit has always enjoyed live music and was quite the guitarist and rock artist himself. According to Kit’s siblings, Led Zeppelin's "Stairway to Heaven" and Kansas' "Dust in the Wind" were two acoustic pieces he practiced to perfection, embodying his formative years as a guitarist. Although Kit enjoyed all types of music, his favorite was heavy metal and seeing bands such as Iron Maiden, Metallica, and Judas Priest (and countless others) live in concert with his close friends and former bandmates. Stacy and Kit enjoyed many concerts over their 23 years of marriage all the way up until Kit’s passing as Stacy took care of him endlessly through poor health and made sure Kit was always well enough to enjoy their next show.

Kit was an amazing chef as well and loved to cook for his family; his specialties were Thai food and jalapeno chicken wings. Throughout Kit’s entire life, he has been loving, kind, and caring. These traits were evident to everyone he came in contact with and confirmed by his nurturing personality which came in handy for his many pets including countless dogs and fish. Furthermore, Kit was a father figure to many as he helped raise his niece and nephew on top of his own children and even grandchildren. Kittibo A Yok aka Hun, Dad, Uncle Kit, and Grandpa Kittitoes will be remembered as a selfless, loving man. We love you Kit!
