Beverly Jean Wiseman

June 11, 1941 ~ October 23, 2015

Beverly was born June 11, 1941 in Murray, Utah to Robert and Dessie Shelton Gerbich. She married Norman Wiseman March 7, 1961. They were married for 54 years.

Beverly is survived by her husband, Norman; four children, Norman, Jr., Kimberly Johnson, Mark, and Rick (Michelle); eight grandchildren and four great grandchildren. She is also survived by her Aunt Dorothy Kenner and Aunt Anna Lisnich. Beverly's first and foremost priority was her family. She was a loving mother and grandmother who spent her life serving them with unconditional love.

In 1957, Beverly started a career dancing in William Christensen's first ballet class in Salt Lake City which was the beginning of Ballet West. She danced in the first Nutcracker presented in Utah. She continued on in each ballet production at Kingsbury Hall all through her high school years. Beverly was also an accomplished pianist.

Beverly and Norm spent each year in May visiting Aunt Anna in Roseville, CA. Aunt Dorothy would join them traveling from New York to spend this special time together. Beverly and Norm also enjoyed their home in Mesquite, NV where they made many friends and great memories. Beverly worked for American Express, starting in 1986 and retiring in 2003.

We love you and will miss you, Mom.
