Katherine Breinholt Pulley, our sweet mother, grandmother, and friend, passed away Thursday, July 16, 2015 due to complications of Lewy body dementia.

Kay was an excellent cook and was famous for her apple pies and jam. She was especially accomplished at embroidery and made beautiful quilts for her family.

She served in many church callings, but her favorites were in Primary and Relief Society. Kay worked for many years in the insurance and travel industries, retiring from Continental Airlines. She enjoyed being able to see the world.
