Short! God Bless Each of You With His Most Choice & Richest Blessings!! Aunt BettyTil we meet again, My dearest earthly friend of 74 years. You are the Best & I miss you already! I am so happy you & Don are reunited!! I knot that is what you wanted more than anything!! You're friendship, example of faith. obedience & values we such a guide to me throughout our teens I I am stronger better because of or long friendship!! May God be with your grown children that they might also Live by your standards & example & know that those examples will bring total happiness & live by the Gospel standards & one day when you are all reunited with family, you will all be grateful you had such good parents to bless & teach you the way yo live to gain Eternal Happiness & Exaltation with them! Carol loved each of you so very deeply & was devoted to you happiness & being kind to each other, support & stay close to each other. Time Is So Short so use it wisely & Love & Support each other & Look Forward to A Very Happy Reunion Someday when each of you join your Parents & Loved Ones For Eternity! God Bless Each of You with His Most Choice & Richest Blessings! ILove You All & want the same happiness for you that Don & Carol do. They are Not dead to us, but just in a different area for awhile. Love to each of you! Aunt Betty
