She is survived by her children, DawnLynn and husband Bill Ingram, Michael Price and wife Raylene, Douglas Price and wife Sandee, 13 grandchildren, 29 great grandchildren and 7 great great grandchildren.

Dartear was born to Peter August Jensen and Pearl Eva Christensen Jensen on October 21, 1926 in Salt Lake City Utah. She enjoyed her young life on Weber Thousand Peak Ranch during the summers, fall/spring in Chalk Creek, and winter on the west dessert in Trout creek with her sister Arminta, mother and father.

Dartear attended South High School. She married Stanely Eugene Price on January 29, 1943 in Evanston Wyoming.

Dartear served in several different auxillaries for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

She had a passion for decorating and was employed as an interior decorator then later became a window dresser for the Paris Company, ending her career by retiring from Sutherland Lumber Company.

Dartear was a proud member of the Ladies Lions Club of Utah. She assisted in the skiing for the blind project. Dartear was always helping and encouraging others to reach their full potential. She was a Utah Lions eye donor, Utah Eye Alliance in association with U of U and Moran Institute.

She was a loyal member of the Utah Daughters of the Pioneers. For several years she served as PTA President at West High School.

Stan and Dartear loved entertaining and spending time at the cabin, Prices Seldom Rest Ranch, with family and friends.

Dartear started painting at the age of 80, encouraged by her mentor and good friend Roberta. Nature was here canvas painting mountains and dessert scenes she knew so well. We were all so blessed to have her in our lives, she shared her qualities of strength, beauty and endurance. She always had a way of making thing so beautiful. Her talent, love for nature and ability to succeed has been passed down to her grandchildren and great grandchildren making her glow with pride.
