Carol was a gentle soul. She often came by to say hello to the kids and pet our cat. I will always have fond memories of her as a neighbor and friend! Yes, I like the description “Carol was known as a woman of tiny stature, with a big heart!”

- Wason Family

My lasting impression of Carol can be summed up in this Scripture: “Let your gentleness be evident to all.” Phil 4:5 Her soft answers and infectious giggles reflected a life well lived. Though I only knew Carol for a short time, her love of pets and plants built a connection between us. May she rest in God’s peace.

- Robin San Pedro, neighbor

I feel very fortunate to have known and been neighbors with Carol. She reminded me of my own grandmother and I always loved seeing her outside working in her garden. I also appreciated her softness and contemplative nature. We shared a great love for the natural world and it inspired me to see her marvel at the flowers and the trees as a child does. You are missed Carol.
