

Tony Brown

July 20, 1942 ~ February 11, 2026

Tony Brown, a beloved husband, father, grandfather, and friend, passed away surrounded by the love of his family. He leaves behind a legacy of devotion, hard work, faith, uncanny sense of humor, wit, and deep love that will continue to bless all who knew him.

Tony was married for 58 years to the love of his life, Susan Brown. Together they built a great marriage rooted in commitment, laughter, and support of each other. Their marriage was a shining example of true love and devotion.

A faithful member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Tony lived his beliefs through quiet service, integrity, and compassion. His faith guided his life and shaped the way he led his family.

He loved fishing and being in the mountains. Above all else, Tony’s greatest joy was his family. Nothing made him happier than hanging out with his grandchildren. Being ‘Grandpa’ was one of the proudest roles of his life, and his love for his grandchildren was boundless.

Tony will be remembered for his steady presence, his kindness, sense of humor, and devotion to his wife and family. Though he will be deeply missed, his legacy of love, faith, and dedication will live on in the hearts of those he leaves behind.

He is survived by his wife, Susan Brown, his four children, Doug Brown (Andrea), Alison Vagen, Chris Brown (April), and Katherine Brown, and his twelve grandchildren.
