

Carol Lois Clark

May 23, 1948 ~ October 19, 2024

We will always remember Carol's brilliance and warm kind personality. She inspired us and always brought laughter and love with her. We witnessed her struggle with cancer when our Margaret was being treated with breast cancer also. Initially they survived and thrived. May they shine with their heavenly glowing personalities in heaven. There are many happy reunions taking place there. Please accept our sympathy. We remain with faith and hope in our Savior Jesus Christ and his plan of happiness. We pray for your comfort and peace. Les, Chase, Rex and Heidi Tippetts

- Les Tippetts

I express my condolences to Carol‘s family and friends. Carol was always kind to me personally. She was always trying to lift people‘s spirits and help us to see the good in ourselves. We have lost a great and noble woman.

- Richard Walker

My condolences go out to Carol's family and friends. She was indeed a noble spirit. It has been many years since I have seen her, but my memory of her is as fresh today as it was when we were roommates at the Grand Canyon during the summer of 1967. We slept in bunk beds, I on the top and she on the bottom. She frequently stuck her feet up into my bed to see if I was awake. We had wonderful adventures that summer with 3 other roommates. I knew then that her testimony was strong, though I was not yet a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. She was a beautiful daughter of God.

- Suzanne Draper Brooking

My family and I met Carol while working together as colleagues for the Church on a joint assignment at BYU Hawaii and the PCC. That chance meeting turned into a friendship of many years with Carol and Stan whom we lovingly regard as “family by affection” (a phrase coined by Carol that we will always remember. To my children, Carol quickly became lovingly known as “aunt Carol,” a role, which she had no obligation to fulfill, but did so dedication and love. We will fondly remember many get togethers during the holidays, ukulele lessons at the Fongs, dinners just to catch up on her latest travels and even another visit to Hawaii to see our oldest son graduate from BYU Hawaii. To every occasion, Carol brought humor and wit as well as thoughtfulness and care. Her fridge magnet collection, as well as windup toy collection is nothing short of epic… For those who haven't seen it, you are missing out. We will sadly be in Hawaii during the viewing and funeral but will be watching online. We love and miss you, dear aunt Carol… Aloha Oe! Ben, Niki, Parker, Tanner, Jack and Lucy

- Ben Bennett

Our most sincere condolences to the wonderful Clark family. Carol was a dear friend and mentor. To apply two of her common sayings back to this dear woman, she is "a grand soul" who lived her life "wise as a serpent and harmless as a dove."

- Tammy and Jon Stansfield

Carol had such a wonderful impact on my life, both as a mentor and friend. At work she guided me and helped me improve. Her counsel was always spot on and honest. As a friend she was with me when I built my lightsaber at Savi's Workshop. That will always be a precious memory, and Carol was with me. Thank you Carol for making the lives of those around you better. Until me meet again.

- Merrill White

Carol is Home! She made it to the end as a shining example of an ever faithful disciple of Christ. ! I am so grateful to have known her, and grateful that we reconnected before her final illness so I could express my love to her. What an amazing, full, excellent life of love, service, and intelligence - a true saint! She will always be in my heart. I look forward to being with her again.

- Liz Blackwell

I am so sad to hear of Carol's passing. Carol was a sweet friend. Carol taught me the importance of education and learning. I had some great adventures with Carol and I will always be grateful for her guidance in my life. Blessings on her family during this difficult time.

- Susan Burleson

I was just thinking about one of my high school English teachers and how wonderful of an influence she had on my life, so I decided to google her. I came across her obituary, and I don't know if anyone will see this, but I do want her family to know she was a wonderful teacher who helped teach me to think critically and consider humanity more deeply. I'm so grateful she was my teacher!

- Michelle O