To Carol's Family, We send our love and heart-felt condolences.. It is never easy to part with a mother or grandmother, and we know Carol's influence will be missed. She lived for her family and constantly worried about their welfare . Carol was a tireless worker and a provider, Making friends and getting to know people were two of her many attributes that we know her kids will carry on. She had a gift making plants grow and a discerning eye for beauty in everything and everyone. We are glad she is now free of problems and challenges. Much love, the Craner Family
