Chrissie! I have some photos I think would be great. You have many of them. The photos with Mary Schwartz and Cenela. I could learn how to spell our families names correctly. So let me know how to edit and fix. That was the most well written Obit I have ever read. From my classes alone from two years behind and two years ahead, I rounded up 1/3 of us I found 500 of our friends. I must have two hundred Obits and none of them were done with this much though and class! Guess what! Alan and Heather visited me in NC. He is jealous that I get Christmas cards! Thank You so much for making time for me! I love you! I think you should find something that keeps you happy and entertained! Aunt Carol was right! You got this!

I enjoyed many years of visiting with Carol. She was always full of information, bubbling with positivity, and loved reading volumes of literature. Never did I leave her home without being offered a choice of Sees Chocolatesher favorite. She was a trend setter in fashion and she told me she appreciated me recommending Chicos to her. I will miss my good friend. She certainly was very well adjusted! (her description of herself).

Hi Christine, So sorry to hear about your mom. She was such an amazingly strong woman. I always admired her. I can still remember so many wonderful things about the house. Great memories. Sending my best. Mary Amanda Fairchild

Dear Christine, Thank you for letting me know about your mother and sending me the information. It was a lovely funeral. The flowers were beautiful. It was good to see you if only to the video. I know it is so hard to lose your mother. She was a very strong lady. She told me at my daughter's wedding to not tell anybody how much my dress cost. And she always said that she was doing well. It does not matter how old a parent is, it is still hard to have them leave. My dad was 90 and it was hard for me. My mother died when I was about 31. I still miss her. My love goes out to you and your lovely family. All my love, ■■■ Gladys Brown

It was always so fun to go with my Grandpa Richard and Grandma Ann to go visit aunt Carol. She was so sweet to my sister and I, and made us feel very important whenever we would see her. As I remember my grandpa really looked forward to visiting with her and showing us grandkids off to her. Her house was beautiful and very welcoming. We would enjoy homemade candy while my grandparents would visit. She even had laser tag guns that she let us play with that seemed so futuristic to me in the early 90s. Always such a classy and elegant person. The first funeral experience I had was at her husband Elden's viewing. Very impressionable for a future funeral director. Sending Condolences to you Christine.

Dear Christine You may not remember me but I was a roommate of yours in the Dutton House. I want to reach out and offer my sincere sympathy for the loss of your mother. She was remarkable and a anchor to your family. How blessed to have such amazing mother. I hope you will have comfort and peace as you go forward in the future. My husband passed a little over three years ago and comfort and peace is a blessing as life goes forward. I pray for you and your extended family. I send my love to you. Connie Worthington Wilson
