A beautiful tribute for a beautiful lady. Carol "was compassionate and unassuming" and had a sweetness that will be greatly missed. I first met Carol at Highland High and later at Trolley Square. Years later Carol came to my home with Norman Day when she worked at Design Limited. It was a pleasure to see her again and to get reacquainted. Carol's humility and gentleness would always outshine a more outspoken individual. We need more like her. My heartfelt sympathy to Chris and all of Carol's family and friends. We will all miss her sweet spirit.

I am so sad to see this. Carol was my childhood friend (along with Nancy) I have the most wonderful memories of spending time with her and her family at their cabin. I was like their adopted daughter. It was truly the best childhood. My condolences to her family and friends. She was so loved ♥■

Dear Chris, I'm so very sorry for your loss. I only met you a couple of times but I grew up with Carol and Nancy on Emerson Ave. I have such great childhood memories of our adventures playing in the gully and on the street... so many friends, we played tag, hide and seek, soccer and baseball with trees and potholes in the street as our bases! The Summerhays family was wonderful, my mom and Barbara were great friends and everyone loved Claude and his parents, who lived right across the street from them. As a little girl, I was invited to spend time with them at their cabin... when I was looking for cabin property, I kept thinking that soapstone seemed familiar and after buying my cabin I was thrilled to see Carol again and meet you. I even had the opportunity to see Barbara again too. Carol was such a bright shining light in the cabin community... I have missed not seeing her, I didn't know about her health struggles. Again, my deepest condolences and I do hope to connect with you again at soapstone. Jackie Darby Wall

Dear Carol. It is a shock to hear you are gone so soon. What fun we had together those years at Clayton and Highland. Thank you for your friendship. I have never forgotten going to your cabin, where I first rode a dirt bike over the bumps in your backyard, or trying to pick out the guitar chords you so patiently showed me. We were in Dance Class together. What fun that was!. We chose each other for the partner dance, and I still remember planning our dance to the song "Mr BoJangles, dance". Our solo dances you got the highest score in the class. You were so creative and talented and I was glad to call you friend. You helped make those school years bearable and I'm forever grateful for your smiles and laughter. Susan

I would like to send my condolences, what a great tribute to her. A petite woman with such a huge heart. I enjoyed many lunches, life stories, and laughs with her, Norm and Gail. Memories that bring a smile to my heart.

Chris, I was thinking about Carol today , being her birthday, and I wanted to call her but instead I found her obituary. I'm so sorry for your loss! I didn't know about her passing. It's devastating news to me. I'm so sad. We had a wonderful life growing up. So many memories with her mom and dad and Nancy, visits to her cabin and school girl memories. We had many wonderful times together. I hope you are doing ok. She loved you so much!
