Norma I. Wallace Hughes Hansen

December 17, 1930 ~ February 3, 2015

Norma I. Wallace Hughes Hansen passed away on February 3, 2015. Norma was the fourth of six daughters born to Harold E. Wallace and Lottie Lourhean Hill. She is survived by two sisters (Bernice Goddard and Jane Bullock), her husband J. Keith Hansen, 5 children, 14 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren. She loved her family and cherished the time she was able to spend with them. She was an active member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and faithfully filled many callings therein. Norma loved playing tennis, working in the yard and participating in theDaughters of the Utah Pioneers. She could say without reservation \"I believe in God the Eternal Father, in His Son, Jesus Christ, and in the Holy Ghost.\" Her life reflected her belief in being honest, true, chaste, benevolent, virtuous, and in doing good to all those around her.Shepatiently endured all that was required of her with grace, elegance and dignity. She consistently lived a life demonstrating that it was possible toconstantly seek that which is virtuous, lovely,of good report and praiseworthy,and toteach her ideals by unwavering example.

A graveside service for family members was held on February 6, 2015.
