

Milo Rohde Hadlock

April 10, 1949 ~ June 13, 2021

After 72 years, our beloved father and grandfather Milo Rohde Hadlock has adventured beyond this life onto the next. He was found deceased at his home in Sandy on June 13, after having experienced heart issues for several months. He was born in Salt Lake on April 10, 1949, to parents Milo Steele Hadlock and Jacqueline Geneve Rohde Hadlock. He served an LDS mission to Saskatchewan, Canada. Later he met his eternal companion, Nona Jeannine Hansen, while both attended Utah State University. They were married in Ephraim, Utah at the Manti LDS temple. Together they had 5 children and 17 grandchildren.

Milo's family was his life. He was Troy’s caregiver and physical therapist while Troy was recovering from a severe accident. He faithfully helped his siblings take care of his parents in their last years.

Milo had a thirst for knowledge. He was always reading and collecting books and encyclopedias. He enjoyed taking advantage of the vast information on the internet. His curiosity also led him to exploring the great outdoors. He was able to achieve his goal of reaching 50 mountain peaks before his 50th birthday. He was active in the Boy Scouts and helped Troy, his youngest son, earn his Eagle, and continued leading Boy Scouts for many years after that. He enjoyed driving, camping, rock hounding and, in his later years, fishing, gardening, and watching educational videos. He was artistic and had a passion for photography. He took advantage of every family gathering as well as every camping trip, as an opportunity to capture family memories.

Milo drove a bus for UTA for 30 plus years. It was not the job he dreamed of doing in his youth, but it was a good job that provided for his family and left him enough time and energy for his family and his many other interests. Before UTA, he worked construction and he and his father built the family home, where he and his wife raised their children.

Milo is survived by his wife of 48 ½ years, Nona Jeannine Hadlock, his children, Kimberly Hadlock Chan, Milo Bryan and Bridgette (Eldredge) Hadlock, Andrew and Jennifer (Anderson) Hadlock, Jennie and Tingbi Zhao, Troy Melvin and Caleigh (Hanks) Hadlock, his siblings Mary Ann Van Alstyne (Peter), Susan Kruger (Russell), Margaret Douglass (Sändra), Kenneth J. Hadlock (Debra), and 17 grandchildren.

Preceded in death by his parents Milo Steele and Jacqueline Rohde Hadlock.
