

Carolyn Elizabeth Joyner Freebairn

March 31, 1934 ~ March 13, 2022

I had the honor of playing hockey with Glenn both as a teammate and against each other. I have vivid memories of your mom and dad at the ice rinks and they were always so kind to me.

Though we are saddened by Aunt Carolyn's passing, we know that she had joyous reunions with family members who have gone before her, especially Uncle Don and Glenn. We hope that you feel the love of many family members and friends who also loved her and hope that will help you through this time. She was an amazing woman and she always made us feel welcome.

To Carolyn’s family, Wishing you peace and grace during this difficult time. Carolyn was so sweet and gracious❤■. I always enjoyed talking to her and learning about her life and your family. I will miss her sweet holiday poems and cards. Sincerely, Barbara Reineke

We watched her funeral on zoom. She would be pleased. We loved your mom. She’s been a big influence on our lives. Glad she’s finally able to do what she wants. It’s been a long time since her body was able to keep up with all she wanted to do and all the people she wanted to help. Sorry we were out of town but thank goodness for zoom! Dear David, Carla, and Dan, I found your Mother's beautiful picture while I was scrolling for Judy Jardine's. It was interesting for me to spend the day with two special people I knew from my writers' club. I will never forget your mother's special poetry and the kind letters and laminated pictures she sent to us as neighbors. We loved your whole family and have great memories of living on your street. I rejoice now to know your mother and father are together again with Glenn. I did find her obituary when I looked for her specifically and copied it with her picture to go in my writers' club file. We will have a big group when we finally get together again. Dix joins me in sending love and condolences to all of you now as you live on as if she were still with you.

Dear Carla and Dan, I was so surprised to see your mother's obituary as I was looking for another one. We have come back to Utah and live in Cedar Hills just north of the Mount Timpanogas Temple where we live with Dee's family. We take the Deseret News mainly to check obituaries so I had no idea she has gone on to be with your dad. We loved that beautiful, very talented lady and want to send our condolences to you. We hope you are both doing well. I couldn't see an obituary and would love to have you e-mail one to us. Your family has been on my mind as I am now writing a book about Kell's 43 years in a wheelchair. Love from Dix and Mary Jean
