I have always respected Carolyn on many, many fronts. I believe she is one of the finest individuals I have ever met. Great wisdom, great poise, immense generosity, incredible vision, and a high regard for all human beings. I consider it a great privilege to have associated with her professionally, to have learned from her personally, and to have been given the wonderful opportunity of being associated with the tremendous legacy of the Tanner family in a very small way. I am VERY grateful to know her.
