

Susan Renee Homer

May 8, 1967 ~ June 17, 2022

Susan Renee Homer, age 55, Sandy Utah, passed away surrounded by family on June 17, 2022.

She was born in Swainsboro, Georgia and moved many places until her family moved west to Sandy, Utah in March 1977. She graduated from Jordan High School where she met her husband, Drew Homer. They were married in Salt Lake Temple on March 23, 1990. She completed her degree at Utah State University in Early Childhood Education. She was a die-hard Utah State Aggie and Jordan High Beetdigger Alumni. She thoroughly enjoyed supporting her sons through all their activities but especially enjoyed their school activities, and all other activities associated with either school.

Susan lived for teaching. She taught at Park Lane Elementary for 32 years. She taught kindergarten for 22 years and 3rd grade for 10 years. She had a deep love for all her students. She was a teacher through and through. She had a gift with her students. She knew how to reach each student to help them to succeed. She was an inspiration to her students, friends and colleagues. She was a mentor to many. She was a strong leader and had the ability to bring others together to form a strong team. In 2015 she was awarded “Teacher of the Year” and in 2018 was awarded the “Teacher Appreciation” award from Sandy City Youth Council.

Susan had the trait of touching every life she came in contact with. She had an unlimited capacity to love. She had a smile and bright personality that lit up the room. She loved her husband, her boys, her students, teaching and her Georgia roots. She will be remembered for so many things. One of those things is “You can do hard things”.

Susan was a devout member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. She served in various callings throughout her life: Primary President, Young Woman President and in various ward and stake callings. She had a strong testimony of our Savior, Jesus Christ, and of our Father in Heaven. She shared her testimony in many ways including her love of music.

She is survived by her loving husband, Drew, as well as her four sons: Justin (Emily); Dallin; Jordan (Lexie); Logan and One Granddaughter, Hallie.
